PROPOSAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

The customer agrees to the terms and conditions below when they place a completed order with our company. An order is completed when the agreement has been accepted and payment has been received. In addition, the customer authorizes their credit card company to abide by these terms. We reserve the right to cancel orders at any time.

PRICING.

We rely on third-party data for all pricing and errors can/may occur. In the event of any grievous error in pricing (as determined at the sole discretion of Authorized), we reserve the right to cancel this proposal, modify this proposal or cancel with refund any accepted quote.

TAXES & SURCHARGES.

Taxes & Surcharges are estimates based upon current tax rates. Final taxes and surcharges are calculated upon invoice and are subject to change.

PAYMENTS & DEPOSITS.

Qualifying orders may be accepted with a deposit instead of payment in full. In the event a deposit is accepted the balance is due within 90 days. Orders with an unpaid balance at 120 days are subject to the Abandonment terms described herein. If paying by credit card, a 3% processing fee will apply. For orders paid in full at time of proposal acceptance the credit card processing fee will be waived.

ABANDONMENT.

In the event that products and/or orders are "abandoned", Authorized, at its sole discretion may cancel the transaction, retain any payment paid by the Customer and dispose of the merchandise in any way it sees fit.

WAREHOUSING.

Authorized agrees to warehouse orders, that are paid in full, at no charge up to 180 days. Orders not shipped within 180 days are subject to the Abandonment terms described herein.

DELIVERY & INSTALLATION.

If in-home delivery and/or installation services are not on the accepted quote, all products will be either "curbside delivery" or "garage drop". If installation cannot be performed per manufacturer's guidelines additional charges and/or additional trip charges may apply.

We reserve the right to refuse delivery or installation of any product. We do not accept responsibility for damage to any pre-existing old or corroded pipes, hoses, faulty connections, plumbing or venting not up to code.

Natural Gas is the standard fuel type for all gas appliances. It is the responsibility of Customer to order Liquid Propane products or pay for a fuel conversion where applicable. Authorized Appliance shall not be liable for any appliance installed for use with an incorrect fuel type.

If the site is not ready or the scheduled delivery is missed, a return trip charge of $99 per trip (not including extended delivery zone service charges) will be charged.

RETURN POLICY.

Policies and procedures for obtaining a return authorization vary based on the reason for return. Returns and exchanges are available up to 14 days of invoice if items are factory-sealed in their original manufacturer's packaging. Products that are not factory-sealed are non-returnable. Approved returns are subject to a minimum 30% re-stocking fee. Prior to issuing a refund, all products must be returned to, and inspected by, the Authorized Appliance warehouse. Products that are not factory-sealed, damaged or otherwise in a condition limiting its resale as "new" will result in a re-stocking fee commensurate to the extent the product will need to be discounted for resale or the return being denied altogether.

Shipping and handling charges are non-fundable. Customers are responsible for shipping charges incurred when returning a product.

Any product not in stock at time of purchase is considered "Special Order" and is not returnable or refundable. "Clearance Products" are also non-returnable and are non-refundable.

WARRANTIES.

Authorized Appliance does not explicitly, or implicitly, provide any warranties above and beyond the manufacturer's stated warranties.

MAIL-IN REBATES.

Rebates shown are estimates of potential rebates available on the date of proposal. Rebate design, implementation, execution, and Terms & Conditions are exclusively provided by manufacturers and/or their wholesale partners. As such, rebates estimates do not create, or imply, any liability for Authorized Appliance. All rebate claims and payments are exclusively between the issuer and the consumer.

TITLE TRANSFER.

Unless this is a contract with a valid tax-exempt organization, if the intent of this contract is for materials to be installed, regardless if installation charges are included herein or billed separately, the combination is a construction contract, which is an agreement between this contractor and the owner to improve, repair, replace, erect or alter real property. It is expressly agreed that title to and ownership of the materials installed in this contract pass from the Contractor to the Owner upon permanent and complete installation as fixtures to realty. This portion of the contract will include a surcharge, which will be applied to the installed items, which represents a portion of the expenses incurred by contractor in the fulfillment of the contract. For those items that are not going to be installed it is expressly agreed that title and ownership of the materials will pass as tangible personal property upon delivery to the job site.

If this contract does not include installation, or if it is a contract with a valid tax-exempt organization, or if any other form of a valid exemptions is issued by the owner/customer, it is expressly agreed that title and ownership of the materials provided in this contract pass prior to installation as tangible personal property upon delivery to the job site. All taxable sales of tangible personal property will have the appropriate sales tax charged.
